Use this “Tour Guide” sheet to guide colleagues through learning about SRSD, using resources at thinkSRSD.com

Why SRSD? Only 24% of the nation writes proficiently, teachers feel unprepared to teach writing, yet it is critical to all future success. SRSD believes all students can be empowered to self-regulate the complex writing process in ways that allow them all to create beautiful writing art, use writing to advance their learning and further their own self-discovery.

Why Teachers Love SRSD: SRSD works and teachers see that immediately. Many testimonials are given in the videos below (on homepage) and on a full page in this website that will be shown next.
